Project Description:

The amazing feeling of having a weekend home that has its own infinity, a view that takes the breath away! View that gives the gushing feeling of divinity of nature! where one can enjoy the sunrise and sunset along the beach in your own private space. Space! it is a luxury, the wider, the more sophisticated.

The pendant lamps that are placed in the corner of the room, lighting up every nook at night! Many windows that dress the wall behind the sofa let in generous light, which floods the space during the day, making the space feel light and bright colours that make living room so playful - aqua and yellow.

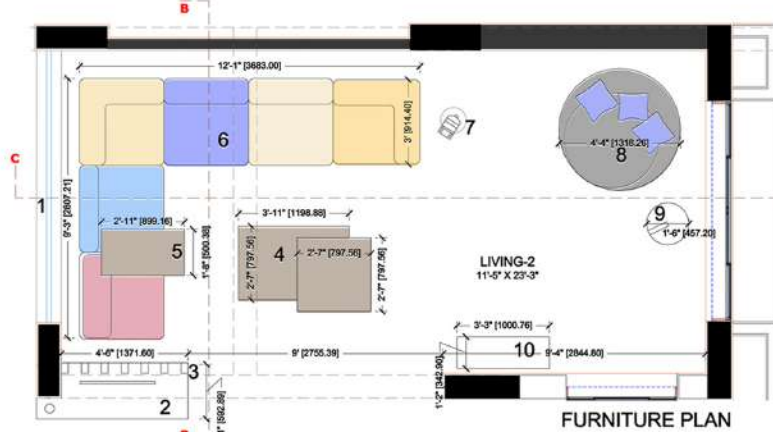

Shades of beige in the space adds warmth to the room, the space between furniture pieces are wide, adding to the light feel. Rug promises warmth and comfort, there's a lot of play with textures- softness and smoothness. The tapestry of sofa completes the beauty and elegance. Greenery adds a tinge of refreshment and rejuvenation not just horizontally but the vertical play which also acts as an partition.

Beautifully crafted metal pieces enhances the use of jute not only restricted to it but it also has its own light that participates in glowing the whole space with a hint of Golden. The entrance has been amazingly lit by the array of light bulbs which are accompanied by Metal and Jute but that has another flavor to it!

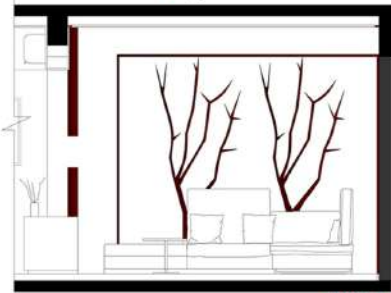

As soon as one enters the home, the view of the ocean catches the eyes leaving speechless to just admire the beauty of nature. The coffee Lounge is made very playful in contrast to the living room by adding colors and textures, the striking colors can make one happy and smile. The play of colors, style, proportion, patterns and shapes balance everything out, making it harmonious.

As one enters the Bedroom one can straight away detach and get connected to the tropical mood. White visually opens up the space even more, and the blues convey an air of sophisticated towards aqua. Bed itself makes a statement being tropical four - poster bed draped with curtains leaving impact on one's heart. The chandelier that sits in the center of the bed acts as a Crown which helps adding the warmth and excitement.

Whether it be day or night, whether a shiny summer day or a gloomy monsoon evening, the space will always give you the same energizing and playful experience, both in your mind and your heart!

CEILING PLAN

Lights that are not only beautiful when lit, it also hangs as an attractive piece highlighting the corner. The minimal design elements makes it more desirable! Monochrome color does wonders here.

The inspiration of catching the light has been fulfilled with the beautiful cage lights that highlights its vintage and rustic feel, giving it an elegant aspect. Rope and metal as materials are creating a strong and refined look.

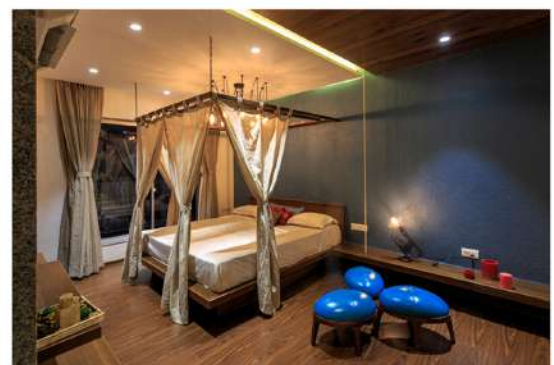

The ceiling of black metal plates with golden coated objects along with jute background and wooden frame.

Evoking a combination of nature-inspired transitional and modern furniture style Easy Chair that is a perfect companion for any bedroom! Walnut wooden frame and olive green tapestry makes it a perfect choice!

An eye catching abstract piece suspended right in the vestibule will gain your attention as soon one enters which becomes more eccentric with the red colored table that helps to make space more and more beautiful!!

As soon as one enters the room the aqua and warm lights takes away all the attention and the bed instantly shifts oneself to Tropical Beauty! The amazingly striking combination of colours, furniture and textures makes it completely and wholly desirable!!
